

Expression of Interest for Ascot State School Council

Name:

Email:.....

Elected Position	Eligibility	Nomination (please X)
Staff	All persons on staff at the school, with the exception of the principal
Parent	All parents of current children at the school, with the exception of the P&C president

This is an exciting opportunity to shape the future direction of our school. As one of two elected parent members and two elected staff members, you will play a vital role in the effective governance and strategic direction of Ascot State School. We need people with vision and passion – to help Ascot transition from being a great school to an even better school. This is your opportunity to contribute to effective parent and staff engagement in education at Ascot.

By submitting this form, you are agreeing to attend an information and training session on the evening of the 30th of July to find out more about being on our School Council. Nominations will be then called in August and a secret ballot held for those staff and parents who have nominated.

By signing this form, you are agreeing to be bound by the Code of Conduct for School Councils and hereby state that you have not been convicted of an indictable offence.

If you have any queries, please email president@ascotsspandc.com.au Otherwise, please return this form to the front office by 3pm on the 29th of July.

Please outline your statement/beliefs about Ascot and the strategic direction vision you have and what you could offer if you were elected. (please attached another sheet if required)

Code of Conduct

This code of conduct sets the expected standards of conduct for all school council members. It has been adopted to aid all members of our school community to work as a cohesive group in partnership with the school.

The code is intended to promote and maintain the highest standard of ethical behaviour by school council members. Members of school councils should adhere to the Code of Conduct at all times. This code applies to each member of a Queensland state school council established under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006.

Integrity and Impartiality

School council members are to:

- act in the best interest of the total school community at all times
- conduct and present themselves in a professional manner
- act with courtesy and demonstrate respect for all persons, whether fellow school council members, school staff, parents/carers, students, community members
- remain objective and avoid personal bias at all times
- build open and honest communication
- represent all members of the school community
- act ethically and with integrity at all times
- declare any conflicts of interest and not misuse their office to advance individual views or for personal gain
- make fair, transparent and consistent decisions
- provide objective and independent advice
- engage with the school community in a manner that is consultative, respectful and fair
- listen and be tolerant of the views and opinions of others, even if those views and opinions differ from their own
- draw upon personal and professional insight (background and experience) when reviewing information.

Promoting the Public Good

School council members accept and value their commitment to:

- be responsive to the requirements of the school community
- engage the school and wider community in developing and effecting school priorities, policies and decisions
- seek to achieve excellence in educational outcomes for all students at the school
- listen and respond to issues and concerns regarding strategy and policy.

Commitment to the system of government

School council members will:

- offer constructive, impartial and professional feedback when consulted regarding official school priorities, policies and decisions
- work within the boundaries of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, the Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2006, and the Department of Education, Training and Employment's policies and procedures relevant to school council operations.

Accountability and Transparency

School council members will:

- treat official information with care and use it only for the purpose for which it was collected or authorised
- respect confidentiality and information privacy (about the school, community members, staff or students) at all times and not disclose confidential information
- store official information securely
- not use confidential or privileged information to further personal interests.
